

CHANNEL VISION™

A Great Idea Just Got Better

HDTV is great, but Channel Vision elevates the home theater experience way beyond great.

With Channel Vision's new P-1400 and new P-1420, you can view awesome quality HDTV on multiple displays. Imagine, watching 4 different sporting events in HDTV at once. Or if you choose, on four separate HDTV displays located in four different rooms.[†]

Named one of the best new products at CEDIA 2005, The P-1400 offers the highest resolution video possible today from a signal source to a display source. The P-1400:

- Is easy to install
- Offers zero-loss of 1080i signal
- Offers hi-isolation of all video signals
- Fits in a 19" rack or structured wire enclosure compatible
- Comes with a pre-connected cable

For more information on the P-1400 or P-1420, call your Channel Vision distributor. Want a Channel Vision Catalog? Call toll-free, 888.840.0288, or go to www.channelvision.com, to get your catalog today.
